

International Summer School of Photography
Latvia, Ludza, 31 July - 8 August 2010

Rules

The participants of ISSP undertake to respect the following rules:

- To take part in the ISSP programme, particularly the work of their workshop, for its entire duration;
- To create a minimum of 3 photographs for the ISSP final exhibition (the number may vary and must be approved by your workshop teacher) and to submit electronic versions of thereof. The final works will remain the property of ISSP organizers, who reserve the right to reproduce them for publicity purposes, with due referrals to the authors;
- To treat with due respect the ISSP fellow participants and staff, the staff and inhabitants of the boarding school and the neighborhood, animals and other living beings;
- To treat the facilities, equipment and materials provided by the ISSP with care; to leave the working places in proper condition after use;
- To take due care of their belongings. ISSP organizers will not take responsibility for equipment or other personal belongings;
- To take due care of themselves, particularly in respect to safety precautions in the labs, swimming places, etc. ISSP organisers do not assume responsibility for health and security of the participants.
- To pay the advance of the participation fee in advance of the workshop, and the remaining part upon the registration to the ISSP on-site.